

Use the pigpen cipher shown on the right to write a secret message to another agent on the paper below.

You could even leave the message in a special dead letter drop box for the other agent to find.

PIGPEN CIPHER

In the eighteenth century, the society of Freemasons used the cipher below to keep their messages secret. The letters (the 'pigs') look as if they are trapped in 'pens'.

A	B	C	J	K	L
D	E	F	M	N	O
G	H	I	P	Q	R

S		W
T	X	Y	Z
V

The shapes made by the dots and lines stand for the letters inside them. For example,
 A =  and Z =

Can you decipher this message?

>ΠΘ □□□□◀ ΓV Γ□
 VJCO ΠJ□□V

Write your answer here

ANSWER: THE MONEY IS IN SAFE HANDS

SPYOLOGY™
 SPYOLOGY:
 The Complete Book of Spycraft
 Spyoology™ is a trademark of The Templar Company Ltd.

CODE SHEET